

Stewartry Sportive – Event Information

Ride the beautiful countryside of Dumfries and Galloway on roads with little traffic compared to most of the UK, and help raise money for local good causes. Proceeds will be shared equally between :

CTC Dumfries and Galloway Members Group to promote cycling in the region, and Dalbeattie Community Initiative to support the Visitor Information Point in Dalbeattie town centre which is run almost entirely by volunteers.

Date - Sunday 16 September 2012

Start/Finish – Dalbeattie High School, Haugh Road, Dalbeattie, DG5 4AR

Routes

Family Route 24km (15miles), Entry Fee £5, route summary Dalbeattie, Palnackie, Gelston, Screel, Dalbeattie.

Round the Loch 80km (50 miles), £15, route summary Dalbeattie, Haugh of Urr, Castle Douglas, Laurieston, New Galloway, Balmaclellan, Corsock, Crocketford, Milton, Haugh of Urr, Dalbeattie.

Up Country 120km (75 miles), £20, route summary, as Round the Loch to New Galloway, then Cairnsphairn, Knowehead, Dalry to re-join the Round the Loch route at Balmaclellan.

If entrant is under 18 years old, entry must be by paper entry form and parent or guardian must countersign the entry. Unaccompanied juniors under 16 years can not be accepted.

Start Times – Up Country (Long route) 9am – 10am, Round the Loch (Medium route) 10am – 11am, Family Ride (Short route) 11am, all times approximate depending on number of entries.

Registration – will open at 8am and close 15 minutes before the final departure time for your chosen route.

All routes will be signed and marshalled.

Feed stop(s) on Medium and Long routes.

Food and drink on return.

Timed certificates for all finishers on the day.

Changing rooms and showers available.

Mobile emergency First Aid ambulance on the course.

An event photographer will be attending; photos will be available to purchase at CycleSportPhotos.com

Electronic route information will be available to download at CTC Dumfries and Galloway starting May 2012

Paper route cards with an emergency phone number will be available at Registration on the day.

You can enter Online NOW at Si ENTRIES Online (preferred).

Paper entry form is available to download now at .CTC Dumfries & Galloway

Online entries close 9 September 2012. Entry on-the-day, £5 extra fee per entry.

If you have any questions, contact Betty Howard;

email betty.howard41@btinternet.com, Tel. 01556 610998.

There is also The Solway Sportive on Sunday 20 May and the Galloway ReCycle Sportive on Saturday 11 Aug.

If you have entered the Solway Sportive Online, when you enter the Stewartry Sportive Online, sign-on using your Sientries ID. This will save you having to re-key your Name and Address etc.